REVIEW.

ALES OF INDIAN CHIVALRY. By Michael With six full page illustrations by Paul Hardy, London, Edinburgh and Dublin; Blackie and Son. 1901.

These nine well-written short stories take us back to India as it was between three and four hundred years ago, when its entire surface was dotted with Mahometan Kingdoms always at war either with each other or with their Hindu neighbours. They present fascinating reading for youngstors. Like Scott's immortal 'Ivanhoe,' which they inevitably recall, they appeal to all that is best in a boy's nature. The indomitable courage which distinguished the warfare between Moslem and Hindu, the devotion of their women who preferred it for some time he said, on entering the Secretary of State, London, to Governor, death to dishonour, is here set forth with The best of the series, to our thinking, is the first tale 'S wed from the Flames,' It tolls, in graphic words, how Abbas Khan, the son and heir of a Mogul Chiefmin, wins for wife the widowed Tulsibai, a Rajjut, by rescuing her from death on her husband's funeral pyre, to which casto projudice vas consigning her. 'A Soldier of Fortune, which brings in the celebrated battle of Talikoti-a fight as decisive towards the influence of Islam in India as was the struggle of Lepanto, six years later for Christianity in Europe, is stirriugly narrated. This book is stoutly bound in cloth, with a design on the cover illustrating the crowning incident of the opening story, and altogether would make an acceptable gift to any intelligent.

THURSDAY, FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, 10th,

11TH AND 12TH JANUARY. The clerk of the weather was singularly favourable to the Amoy Raco Meeting this year. Two brilliant days and a mere threatening for the third was as much as the most sanguine could have lioped for. The attendance was large each day; a fair percentage of strangers and a sprinkling of protty dresses imparting the correct air of festivity to the scene. Racing was good throughout, and the fact that Hongkong and Foochow ponies were competing lent a further interest to the proceedings. For Hongkong, Tocsin, Bewitchment and Thistle each won a race, but with the exception of Thistle none went out for the Champions. Flyaway takes the Stewards and the Pari-Mutual Cups to Foochow, though he failed to carry his 7 lbs. penalty over the mile for the Compradores' Cup. Turning back 2.174. for their stable, securing five wins between them, Ante being only besten in the Champions, where no one succeeded in getting upon terms with Hope, who won the three races he was sent out for in faultless style. Tarantula was able to get the better of Acc of Hearts by half a lougth in the Racing Stakes. This is a pony who should do well on a course more suited to his stride. His stable companion Polka secured the Ladies Purse without an effort, though most people looked for the winner in Tit Bits, who was not able to snatch second place from the speedy Tocsin. The purse | Mr Twoman's Dancer, (Mr Burkill) 11.1 was presented by Miss Mabel Saunders, Mr Evelyn's Farantula, ..... who made a graceful little speech, Mr *Chuck 'Burkill, Polka's rider, replying in : a few neatly-turned words. The race for the Champions was looked upon more or less as a match between Ace of Hearts and Hope, but Hope had always the best of it, winning by seven lengths and justifying his owner's opinion of him. An extra race, one mile, was put in on the second day for a cup presented by H.M.S. Argonaut. which brought out four starters, Ace of Hearls securing first place. A little muchneeded rain which fell previous to the meeting made good going. The attendance of Chinese was large and more booths were noticed than usual. The band of H.M.S. Argonaul, by kind permission of Captain Cherry and officers, played each afternoon with excellent effect. The
